Draft Bye-laws relating (1) to control and maintenance of markets, (2) levying of license fees, (3) transacting business in the Board meetings which had been framed by Mr. B. Narasinga Rao were read and generally approved with an observation by Mr. Mallanna about limiting the number of interpellations for each meeting, the power of the President to allow any interpellation or resolution at a shorter notice than 21 days and the moving of amendments to the resolution during discussion and also the right of other members to move a resolution withdrawn by the mover.

The draft bye-laws together with these proceedings are resolved to be placed before the Board.

B. NARASINGA RAO,

1-8-1927.

Under Section 29 of the District Board's Regulation of 1926, the following rules are framed with respect to the transaction of business of the District Board of Mysore (as amended by the District Board at their meeting held on 6th August 1927. Resolution No. 337.

I. Rules to be observed in conducting the meetings of the District Board.—

1. Ordinarily, the District Board Meeting may be held in the Public Offices building at 12 noon on the 2nd Saturday of the month and go on till 6 P.M. that day and again from 8 A.M. on the succeeding day to 11 A.M. at which hour all remaining business shall lapse.

2. The members while speaking upon any subject before the Board are to get up and address the meeting from their seats.

3. A member who has got up first to speak is generally entitled to preference over others in addressing the meeting. If a dispute arises as to who should speak of those who have got up, the presiding authority is to decide it.

4. While a proposition is being discussed, a member can speak only once unless permitted by the President.

5. The President shall preserve order and shall decide all points of order submitted for his decision by the members and all questions connected with interpretation of the Regulation and the Rules. He shall have all powers necessary for the purpose of enforcing his decision. There shall be no discussion on any point of order and the President's decision shall be final.

6. Any member may draw the attention of the President to the violation of the order and, while doing so, all other members shall remain silent.

7. The President may if he thinks fit prescribe a time-limit for speeches.

8. When any proposition is under discussion, any member may move for an adjournment of the consideration of the proposition. If the President considers the motion is in order and if the motion is carried by a majority, the consideration of the proposition shall be adjourned to some other day when the matter is to be considered again from where it was left.

9. If a discussion on any motion or proposition becomes lengthy and is likely to protect, any member may move "that the question may now be put," provided he does not interrupt a speaker. Unless it appears to the President that the request is an infringement of the rights of reasonable debate the motion "that the question be now put" shall be put forth. There shall be no debate on such motions. If such motion be carried the question shall be put accordingly.

10. All matters connected with the conduct of meetings which are not provided either in the regulation or in the rules shall be governed by general rules of the debate.

These rules shall be observed as far as possible at the meetings of the Committees of the Board except the rule limiting the number of times a member may speak on the same question and the rule requiring a member to stand up while speaking.

II. Interpellations.—

1. No question shall be asked or answered at a meeting of the District Board as to any matters not connected with the District Board Administration and no question shall be asked except as to matters of fact, and the answer shall be confined to a statement of fact.
